Parent News: Too soon to have anything to report

Principal's Update:

- Construction Update: informal – February ribbon cutting possible (delayed), both structures slated to open together
- Parent Volunteers and Background checks: hoping after Fall break for lunch visitors &/or classroom volunteering; volunteering without working directly with children may be ok before fall break, when parents are volunteering outside of classroom they will need a background check-form available from Dr. Erickson exclusively as they are confidential; no cost to parent; need both front office sign in + volunteer background check; clarification on acceptable types of IDs for volunteering will be included in next Pride Press

PTO Update: Groovin' kickoff on 9/3, teacher email coming to ask for classroom volunteers for dressing up for this, no longer door decorating or spirit spoon; need room parents for 2nd & K & Nance; need car dismissal volunteers? Dr. Erickson working on a more permanent plan;

New Business: parent question about benchmark testing timeframes – teachers are responsible for communicating for each class; discussed at parent-teacher conference; also communicated in Pride Press; may be put in report cards/folders;

- Title 1 Compact amendments – reviewed & amended for 2021-2022
- Title 1 Policy – will be reviewed and signed off by end of week by council members
- Title 1 PPT – will be reviewed and signed off by end of week by council members
- Title 1 budget - reviewed; due to “common core” wording, temporary hold on BrainPOP,
- School Improvement Plan was reviewed

Adjourn – 3:52 pm
